

Disciplinary Proceeding Disclosures

The university will, upon written request, disclose to the alleged victim of a crime of violence or non-forcible sex offense, or to the alleged victim's next of kin (if the victim dies as a result of the crime or offense), the final results of any institutional disciplinary proceeding dealing with that crime or offense.