2016-17 Academic Year

Drug and Alcohol Prevention

- The LCU Counseling Center offers individual counseling, education, and intervention to students who abuse drugs, alcohol or any other substance. Clients may be referred to community services as deemed appropriate. For those unsure if they have an addiction, they can complete an anonymous survey under "Web Links for Self Evaluation" below.

- Every student, between 18 and 25 years of age, who comes to the LCU Counseling Center for counseling engages in a drug and alcohol screening, and the results are addressed in their initial visit. This practice allows for many of our students to have their behaviors explored in a way that serves to bring awareness and education to bear on potentially harmful practices.
- The Counseling Center offers the B.A.S.I.C.S. Program (Brief Alcohol Screening and Intervention for College Students) which is an alcohol skills training program. This program and curriculum aims to reduce harmful consumption and associated problems with students who drink.
- A session was held during new student orientation to discuss the LCU Community Alcohol and Drug Policy. The purpose of the session is to inform new students of the policy and the dangers associated with drug and alcohol abuse. (8/19/2017)
