

Lubbock Christian University Distance Learning Program Disclosures

BBA in Business – this program is not designed to meet any state licensure or certification requirements.

MA in Biblical Interpretation – this program is not designed to meet any state licensure or certification requirements.

MA in Christian Ministry – this program is not designed to meet any state licensure or certification requirements.

Master of Divinity – this program is not designed to meet any state licensure or certification requirements.

Master of Education in Educational Leadership/Principal Certification – this program is designed to prepare students to test for certification as a principal in the State of Texas. The university cannot confirm whether the program or courses in the program meets requirements for certification in any other state. Students seeking certification in another state assume responsibility to determine whether the program meets requirements in that state.

MS in Clinical Mental Health Counseling – this program is designed to prepare students to test for licensing as a counselor in the State of Texas. The university cannot confirm whether the program or courses in the program meets requirements for licensing in any other state. Students seeking licensing in another state assume responsibility to determine whether the program meets requirements in that state.

MS in Family Ministry – this program is not designed to meet any state licensure or certification requirements.

MS in Human Services – this program is not designed to meet any state licensure or certification requirements.